January 2023 ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTES

Happy New Year – 2023

It is our sincere wishes that you and your family enjoyed all the blessings of the Holiday Season. The New Year is upon us; full of hope and new opportunities. "What the New Year brings to you will depend a great deal on what you bring to the New Year" – V. McLellan

Welcome to our new residents:

Kenneth Matthews	Debbie Byles	Retha Wells
Samuel & Delores Timmons	Damon McCaskell

Many thanks to Santa (Owen Kuhn) and staff for the fantastic Christmas Party. Those in attendance enjoyed the festivities and pictures with Santa.

Redford Cottage residents – Due to unforeseen circumstances, we have not received the new rental rates for 2023. Until we receive notification from MSHDA/HUD, please continue to pay the 2022 rental rate for your unit. We sincerely apologize for any inconvenience this delay may cause.

There has been an unusually increased amount of "after hour's calls for fire/smoke alarms. Your smoke detectors are extremely sensitive and require your undivided attention. Please stay in or near the kitchen when preparing or warming foods. Use the vent to eliminate excess steam. Make sure the surface of the stove is clean and there is no food or grease residue on or near the burners. Please allow our maintenance team time to travel from their homes to return to campus to disarm the alarms. Residents with multiple calls for smoke alarms will be billed the cost of overtime.

Please remind your guests, care-givers and family members that they must dial your apartment and not the office for entry into the building. It is not the responsibility of staff to allow visitors in to see you. Visitors must also sign "in" and "out" of the guest book.

Lease/House Rule reminder – Overnight guests are allowed to stay for a maximum of 21 days per year. If there is someone staying with you for more than the allowed number of days, you are in violation of your lease and risk non-renewal of your lease. There are provisions for live-in care-givers. However, there is strict protocol for the application process and acceptance of this request. Please call the office if you have questions.

Resident Spotlight

Ms. Sheila Lofton

January 2023

Ms. Lofton has been a Cottage resident since June 2018. She worked for the United States Post Office for 27 years, before retiring in 2003. Sheila loves all things that are hair, makeup, and high heels. Her closet can prove it! Sheila spends her time sewing, crocheting and being physical. You may have seen her bike riding or walking in the neighborhood. She has participated in many marathons around the City of Detroit.

Sheila does not like cold weather.

Therefore, she will see you in the spring.

January Movie List

Marry Me

Moments before kicking off her televised live concert - which was to culminate with her marrying her fiancé on stage - a pop star learns of her intended's indiscretion, his cheating having been caught on video and trending on social media. Frazzled and brokenhearted, she impulsively picks a random stranger from the audience and exchanges vows with him live on stage as the whole world watches.

Ruby Bridges

When six year-old Ruby is chosen to be the first African-American to integrate her local elementary school, she is subjected to the true ugliness of racism for the first time.

A Journal for Jordan

A story of love and honor. 1st Sgt. Charles Monroe King, before he is killed in action in Baghdad, authors a journal for his son intended to tell him how to live a decent life despite growing up without a father.

Death Becomes Her

Rivals who fight for the affections of the same man and drink a magic potion that promises eternal youth, but causes unpleasant side effects.
